MARKET LIKE MIDSUMMER

Transactions Largely in the Hands of Professional Traders, Who Are Inactive.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Facetious brokers cautioned each other to step to-day lest they wake up the stock market from its somnolent condition. A glance at the aggregate of the day's sales will help to explain the pleasantry. Analysis of the price movements will show that only a handful of stocks moved at any time as much as a full point away from last night's closing level. The movement, sluggish as it was, was conspicuous also for its irregularity. The narrow yibrations varied constantly above and below last night's closing level. The consequence was a market such as is rarely witnessed, except in the days of midsummer's oppressive heat. It has been evident for some days past that the diminishing transactions at the Stock Exchange were largely in the hands of professional traders, so that the only profit to be secured must be at the cost of each other. This condition has a natural effect of discouraging efforts in a field so circumscribed. The presence of the Secretary of the Treasury in the city gave rise to some surmises of a possible discontinuance of the deposit of current customs receipts with the banks. This forms the principal sources of the withdrawal of loans made by interior banks here now in progress, owing to the unattractive. ful of stocks moved at any time as loans made by interior banks here now in progress, owing to the unattractive level to which interest rates have fallen, will affect the loan item of the local banks, which are called upon to take ever these loans. The change resulting is nominal, rather than real, as the loans of interior banks which are being recalled were made out of deposits with the New York banks. These credits, therefore, were based on the New York cash reserves as much as they will be when taken over by the New York banks themselves. With the loans figure in the statement of the New York banks themselves, the reserve showing will, however, he afloans made by interior banks here now serve showing will, however, be af

A renewed decline in Standard Oil in the curb market was a feature of the day. The market closed with an un-swing of prices in progress, which left prices generally above last night's closing level. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,094,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales to-day, 214,200

UNIQUE CAREER OF MR. RICHEY

President Johnston, of N. & W., Will Address Citizens of Petersburg.

It is getting to be quite the thing nowadays for railroad men and the people to get to talking with each other, and prominent railway officials are getting to be very much in demand as orators.

At a recent meeting of the agents of the passenger department of the Seaboard Air Line President Garrett, of that road, made a short talk to the agents. Among other things, Mr. Garrett said;

"The Seaboard Air Line Railway is a Southern property, managed entirely from the South, in charge of officials born in the South and interested in the development of the South.

"We desire to co-operate with our patrons, recognizing that our success in the upbuilding of the Southeastern territory is dependent upon the good will of the people, who are our neighbors in every sense of the word, and also upon the prosperity of the territory that we serve.

"The Seaboard is spending vast sums of money improving terminals, securing additional passing tracks and other facilities, and have contracted for fifty engines to be delivered in July and August, as well as 1,000 box-cars 2,000 gondolas and fifty ballast cars, which will be received by fail. In addition to the above, one steam shovel, one pile driver and one ballast unloader have just been received and put in service within the past two weeks. Five express cars and one postal car are on the way. We will have received between March 1 and June 30, 1907, 18,000 tons of rail, which will be laid on the lines between Richmond, Portsmouth and Norlina.

"While not minimizing our difficulties, financial or otherwise, we must at all times recognize the right of our patrons to receive good service, and must do our best to give it, arranging passenger schedules, with view of encouraging travel to the Jamestown Exposition, and at the same time properly serve the entire local territory, giving preference to local requirements instead of to fast through service. It will be our aim to give the best possible service to the local territory, making a most determined effort to have passenger trains on schedule."

Probably the most successful career in the railway service and the most rapid rise known to railway history is that furnished by the record of Mr. M. M. Richey, who has recently been made manager of the middle and western districts of the Southern Railway, with headquarters in Atlanta.

Mr. Richey's brief history reads like romance. He was brakeman on the Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and Indianapolis, and from July, 1815, to 1890 was with the Lafayette, Muncle and Bloomington, and its successor, the Lake Brie and Western, consecutively, as conductor, brakeman, fireman, engineer, switchman and yardmaster of the Calumet and Blue Island in October, 1891, to December, 1892, and in November 1, 1890, was superintendent of the same road from October, 1891, to December, 1894, and was general superintendent in February, 1902. He retired from that road in May, 1902, and in November of the same year went to the Southern Railway in superi
